

Scripture Readings for September 27

Philippians 3:1 - 11

- 1 Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord! It is no trouble for me to write the same things to you again, and it is a safeguard for you.
- 2 Watch out for those dogs, those men who do evil, those mutilators of the flesh.
- 3 For it is we who are the circumcision, we who worship by the Spirit of God, who glory in Christ Jesus, and who put no confidence in the flesh--
- 4 though I myself have reasons for such confidence. If anyone else thinks he has reasons to put confidence in the flesh, I have more:
- 5 circumcised on the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; in regard to the law, a Pharisee;
- 6 as for zeal, persecuting the church; as for legalistic righteousness, faultless.
- 7 But whatever was to my profit I now consider loss for the sake of Christ.
- 8 What is more, I consider everything a loss compared to the surpassing greatness of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have lost all things. I consider them rubbish, that I may gain Christ
- 9 and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ--the righteousness that comes from God and is by faith.
- 10 I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the fellowship of sharing in his sufferings, becoming like him in his death,
- 11 and so, somehow, to attain to the resurrection from the dead.

Philippians 3:12 - 4:1

- 12 Not that I have already obtained all this, or have already been made perfect, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me.
 - 13 Brothers, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead,
 - 14 I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus.
 - 15 All of us who are mature should take such a view of things. And if on some point you think differently, that too God will make clear to you.
 - 16 Only let us live up to what we have already attained.
 - 17 Join with others in following my example, brothers, and take note of those who live according to the pattern we gave you.
 - 18 For, as I have often told you before and now say again even with tears, many live as enemies of the cross of Christ.
 - 19 Their destiny is destruction, their god is their stomach, and their glory is in their shame. Their mind is on earthly things.
 - 20 But our citizenship is in heaven. And we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ,
 - 21 who, by the power that enables him to bring everything under his control, will transform our lowly bodies so that they will be like his glorious body.
- xx04
- 1 Therefore, my brothers, you whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, that is how you should stand firm in the Lord, dear friends!

Matthew 16:21 - 28

21 From that time on Jesus began to explain to his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things at the hands of the elders, chief priests and teachers of the law, and that he must be killed and on the third day be raised to life.

22 Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. "Never, Lord!" he said. "This shall never happen to you!"

23 Jesus turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; you do not have in mind the things of God, but the things of men."

24 Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow me.

25 For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for me will find it.

26 What good will it be for a man if he gains the whole world, yet forfeits his soul? Or what can a man give in exchange for his soul?

27 For the Son of Man is going to come in his Father's glory with his angels, and then he will reward each person according to what he has done.

28 I tell you the truth, some who are standing here will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."
